

COMPANY AUDITION PROCEDURE 2009.

Applicants Aged 13 - 15 years

PART ONE

We would like you to design your character based on the dialogue below. Create a character and deliver the lines as he/she would. Think about the dialogue and the reaction the OTHER character may have to you. Who is the antagonist? Are you cheeky? Straight laced? Sarcastic? Complacent? Make sure that you create a back story and know why you are playing the character that way. We have removed all punctuation to give you 100% creative licence.

Please play this for STAGE.

Male: You can do whatever you like it doesn't worry me
Female: Yes it does I can tell
Male: You're right it does but I have learnt to ignore you it is easier that way
Female: Running from reality isn't healthy
Male: Neither is tanning but look at you
Female: It's fake tan I'm not stupid enough to cook in the sun
Male: I beg to differ although I am glad that the orange tinge isn't anything serious
Female: Why are you like this why do you say cruel things to people are you that unhappy
Male: Not at all.
Female: I liked you you know but you have hurt me one too many times.
Male: Is that why you dyed your skin orange as an outward sign of your inner pain
Female: That's exactly right
Male: So we are similar after all want to go and get a drink

PART TWO

We will redirect the piece for you. We will ask you to take the character a completely different way and see how well you can take direction and adapt to changes.

PART THREE

You will be given a cold read. This will be a TV Commercial script. You will have a few minutes to look at it before you have to perform it.

PART FOUR

You will be given a 'word' and asked to create an Improv based around it. If you need help with it, we will help you by offering suggestions. This part is really to assess where you are up to with Improv. Don't panic!

Please bring your headshot and resume on CD/DVD or a thumb drive/USB
