IMPORTANT INFORMATION

YOUth have Talent Event and Willoughby Street Fair – Saturday 10th September – Glee Primary & HS

Glee Primary and High School classes will be performing at the above two events on Saturday 10th September. The YOUth have talent event will take place at the North Sydney Community Centre. The event has been organized by the North Sydney Community Centre and also features free activities including street art workshops, sausage sizzle and cup cake stall, art exhibition, face painting and live music. Glee students need to arrive at the centre, located at 220 Miller Street, North Sydney by no later than 10:30am in full KICK Uniform with hair and make-up complete. Students will perform at 11am and be ready for pick up immediately after at 11:30am. Please note there will be no Glee High School class on this date. The Willoughby Street Fair will take place this same afternoon. Glee students need to arrive at the Dance Extravaganza Stage, located on Anderson Street North (corner of Endeavour Street), Chatswood by no later than 2:45pm in full KICK Uniform with hair and make-up complete. Students will perform at 3:15pm and be ready for pick up immediately after at 3:45pm. Students should return to classes post performance if applicable.

Annual Concert Update

Our annual concert “Glamorous” will take place at 2pm on Saturday 5th November, 2011 at the Science Theatre, University of New South Wales, Kensington. All students are involved and require the full KICK uniform to take part. If anyone is unable to attend please advise the office immediately so we can pass this on to teachers preparing performance items for the day. All students Year 2 and under will be in the first half and can be picked up at interval if required. A note with full details of the day will be sent home via email to all students and spare copies are available in the office foyer. Costume hire fees may apply and will be advised closer to the date. Tickets will be available on the Try Booking website again closer to the date.

Principal Maternity Leave

Please be advised that I will be on maternity leave from 17th September, 2011. Any queries please contact Kylie Jones on (02) 9966 5013.

Holiday Camps

Don't forget we will be running Holiday Workshops during the September/October school holidays. See our website for further details or grab a brochure from our foyer area. Workshops run daily (except for the Public Holiday) from 9am-4pm for all ages. Book now as places are limited!

UPDATES

Drama Night – Saturday 27th August, Independent Theatre, North Sydney

The 2011 Drama night took place on Saturday 27th August at The Independent Theatre, North Sydney. Students did a fantastic job and should be congratulated! Please also join me in thanking our wonderful drama teachers who put so much effort into producing each piece! Photographs from the event are available at www.mattjewellphotography.com.au

Student News

Take a look at our new section on the website titled “Student of the Month”. This month our outstanding achiever was – Sophie Potter from our Triple Threat program! Congratulations to her! Keep your eye out for next month’s pick.

Michael Brindley, Georgia Brindley and Adam Horner have all been cast in a short film (which is in development for a feature) titled “Foreclosure”. They will be working alongside a Hollywood A-lister who has been in several Adam Sandler films and successful TV shows including Weeds and Seinfeld.

We congratulate all of our students on these great achievements!

Tell us your news! We would love to know if you are up to anything exciting – email us at kpg@aipa.com.au and we will include it in our monthly newsletter!
